Thousands of people visit London every year and one of the many attractions they want to visit is the theatre.

We believe our children growing up in London should have the opportunity, at some point in their education, to see live theatre.

This newsletter has reviews from the live performances the children have seen recently.

Year 3 go to the Pantomime at Stratford.

On Tuesday 5th January 2016 Y3 went to the Theatre Royal Stratford to watch Robin Hood. Many people said it was outstanding. There was a character called Nursy, she was hilarious. There were more than 20 songs. They had a quote and it said 'one is one and lots of fun but together we fight as one'. There were hilarious actions, and volunteers were chosen to be on stage and once it finished they were fussing and moaning that they wanted to see it again. There were boys dressed up as girls and girls dressed up as boys. This is part of the tradition of pantomime. Year 3 loved it so much they wrote a reviews about it. Prince John was so evil that every time he came on stage everyone said booo-booooo! And there were parts when Robin Hood threw candy at the audience. We were sent invitations to Prince John's wedding with Maid Marian and we threw paper aeroplanes at him. People were amazed at how fast they switched props and backgrounds.

Dates for your calendar.

School is closed on Friday 22nd January for teacher training.

World book day is on 3rd March. The school council are talking to their class about the day but dressing up as a character from a book is popular.

So get thinking now about your favourite character.

Year 5 go to West End Theatre, Drury Lane

The last time I went to the theatre was when I was in year 3. This year my class went to see Charlie and the Chocolate Factory at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

Mr. Langford read us the book and our writing focus is play scripts.

The show was magical, the stage and the set and the props were excellent. The stage even moved; that was awesome. My class and I laughed so much.

The Gingerbread Man

Our younger children enjoyed a live performance of the Gingerbread Man just before Christmas.

Ask your child if they can remember the story.

The Lorax

The Lorax was a book written by Dr. Seuss. The famous writer's book was turned into a movie and quite soon after there was a play and luckily this school got the chance to watch the play in the Old Vic Theatre, Waterloo. We would like to thank The Variety Club for these last minute tickets for Wednesday evening.

Ten children from these classes, Y2, Y3, Y4 and Y6 got the opportunity to go. It was an amazing experience for everyone. By the end of the night everyone was overawed by the performance. We would like to say a big thank you to all the teachers that took us on the trip Mrs Akhtar, Ms Fowler, Ms Scanlan, Mrs Thamrat, Ms Williams, Ms Sultana, Ms Basham and Mrs Dhutti.
